We give them love. And they make us better just because we loved them. But there's more. Lots more. Behind the outward affection and love we share with them, come lessons about love, about life and about ourselves that would not and could not have happened unless our dog was in our life. Yet there's a surprise. It's a message your most beloved best friend wants you to know, a message you may never have realized. It's the way you changed your best friend's life.
