Discover Your Passion

How to Find Your Passion: 3 Questions to Unlock a Purpose-Filled Life is a little book that deals with some of the biggest questions of our lives—the questions of who we are and who we are to become. This short manifesto of sorts, which calls the reader to discover and live in their "element," is also a very practical guide that utilizes three simple questions to help lead readers to the answers for which they seek.

Within the book, John Rivers emphasizes the connection between the discovery of your passions and the discovery of your purposes. In the discovery of one, he argues, there will be found the discovery of the other. So, on the one hand, this book will help guide you to where you feel most yourself, where you come alive. On the other hand, it will show you the potential of your impact on others and the way in which those in the future will look back on your legacy.

A book to help you live a purpose-filled life

Clarity is key when it comes to finding your passion and unlocking a purpose-filled life, so the book's main goal is to bring clarity to where there was none before. This is accomplished through asking a series of questions and giving practical tips about how to answer those questions for yourself. By the end of the book, you will be equipped with many new tools that will help you find your passions and purposes, change the world, and leave a lasting legacy. This book is an invitation to join the masses of those who are ready to march forward in changing the world by learning how to be themselves.
