SEAL Team Six 6: A Novel Chuck Dixon

The Team With No Name is dropped into the cauldron of a vicious civil war to find a long-forgotten weapon that will change the rules of the war on terror. Syria is tearing itself apart in the bloodiest internal combat in modern history and the most dangerous place on the planet. The SEALs, still hurting from losses suffered in the last mission, pull it together to enter a remote rebel stronghold in search of a biological weapon so deadly that it threatens the world. All hands are turned against them and discovery means death as they enter the belly of the beast one more time.
