Excerpt from Memorial Exercises on the Occasion of the Centennial Anniversary of the First Presbyterian Church of Caldwell, N. J., Wednesday, December 3, 1884

"When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones? Then ye shall answer them. That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever. For the Lord your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the Lord your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over. That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the Lord, that it is mighty: that ye might fear the Lord your God for ever. - Joshua IV. 6, 7, 23, 24.

If it had not already been done, I should embrace the splendid opportunity which this centennial anniversary furnishes, to bring before you the fullest history of this church which can now be written.

Fourteen years ago it was my privilege to present you with the record of eighty-six years of the now completed century of your ecclesiastical life.

In the absence, therefore, of necessity to review again in detail the items of our church's history, I have found what appears to me a suitable theme for this interesting occasion in the text announced.

As the reading of the Scripture lesson placed before us the connection of these words, we may turn directly to the subject which they suggest, viz.: The Signification and Purpose of Sacred Memorials.

The divine wisdom plainly appears in this command to observe a then already customary form of commemoration. It met that human weakness through which it happens that the most sacred impressions are prone to die. Moreover it harmonized with God's usual methods hitherto.
