Life of a College Bandsman 2: Is This Love (Volume 2) Jaxon Grant

Zach is returning to Tallahassee to start his second year of college and his second year in the world famous FAMU Marching '100' band. At the end of his first semester in college, a certain relationship ended roughly, but now he's back and picking up the pieces to his young life.

In the second entry of a venturesome eleven book series, the gang of characters continue to grow. Dwight and Zach's relationship are taken to higher heights. A certain situation occurs between them making it hard for one of the friends to separate fact from fiction. Tony celebrates the birth of his son, moves to Tallahassee to play football for the Florida State Seminoles and meets a potential, unexpected lover. Micah does something so crazy that could possibly change the course for the rest of his life and threaten the relationship he's building with Kris. Back in Norfolk, the Harris' family troubles are only scratching the surface. Raidon is dealt a major blow, while the rest of the Harris clan deal with the turmoil created by their mother and father. In an unbelievable move, Chaz and Ra'Jon team up to do the unthinkable which could have disastrous, murderous results.

The mix of old and new characters, the twists and turns, and the secrets and revelations only add to the excitement and drama, making this entry one crazy ride. Join Zach and his friends, as the second book in this series is guaranteed to leave you speechless, posing the question—is this love?
