THE ANOINTED: PROPHECIES OF FIRE Dale Ridley

It was once said that things done in the darkness shall come to the light. That is true to a certain degree. What it fails to say is that light eventually fades back to darkness. Anais is betting on the circle to complete itself for he has a desire that burns like a volcano in his veins. He wants to see his brother healed from the wounds he suffered in his fight for the heavens and claim what was rightfully theirs... Nathan is new at being possession leader and he must learn fast for there is no sleep for those that protect against the looming shadows. He will soon learn that the darkest part of creation is the most basic part of all, human nature. Will it be his own or the actions of others that will threaten to swallow him?

Because the darkness is waiting to claim someone. Or something. And if he is not careful, it will be his own echoing screams that sing out in the darkness.
