Born to Die Carrie Starek

Don't judge a book by its cover, right? We hear it all the time, and yet, first impressions play the biggest role in many situations throughout life. Fifteen year old Caelyn Sutton learns this lesson when she becomes involved with the infamous senior group of her school. She learns that most everyone is not who we believe they are. Her once caring and fun boyfriend turns out to be controlling and manipulative. Her once longtime and understanding best friend turns to stone, cold and distant. And her drug dealer enemy who finds himself down a doomed road turns into the one person she can't bear to lose. And she, strong and happy, loses herself to the demons in her bed.
