John's wife knows that a proud and arrogant man cannot make a good slave. She also knows that if her husband is to find the true happiness that only a slave understands, he will have to lose his masculinity. She presents him with a special toy, a toy that he will come to love and worship. His wife begins to manipulate his sexual desires to bring him into slavery. She understands that a woman who knows the key to their hidden sexual desires can destroy a man's macho ego.
