A rockstar, a brokenhearted woman, and one short lived weekend...

*

Gabe Anselle – bassist for Gone by Autumn – doesn't do memories. He lives for moments. It's easier to live life through the shows, tours, parties, and one nighters and forget them the next day. Because nothing can hurt him that way.

The band gets a rare break from the road, so Gabe hightails it to a place he hasn't visited in years. The place where he learned how to strum a guitar, a place where he fell in love with music, a place where he can be alone.

*

Sabrina Penten is a hopeless romantic. Which always leads her down a dark and lonely road. After being dumped by her latest boyfriend, she takes what's supposed to be a sexy weekend away together and goes alone... or so she thinks. The guy staying in the next room to her has a wicked smile and enough bad boy grit to make a good girl like Sabrina want to have some fun... for once...

*

The weekend is short lived, but the feelings are not. When the opportunity to meet up comes again, Gabe can't believe how excited he is to make memories with Sabrina. But when the damaged rockstar opens his heart, will his dark past threaten their bright future?
