Tramp Alone: What if you were a tramp? Frank Pearce

Contained within these pages is the story of a man who deliberately removed himself from society to live alone like a tramp. Living in a tent, travelling around the British Isles, foraging and fishing; that man was me. One day I found a hidden cave which I made my home. Now I feel it's time to share the highlights of my life alone. 'Frank Pearce' (not his real name) is now on Facebook. Add him for more background information, he has allowed us to publish one photo of him which you can see on his Facebook page. This book was written with the help of an anonymous professional writer (my anonymity was a pre-requisite to landing this job). The Facebook page is managed by myself the hired Tramp Alone ghostwriter, Frank promises to occasionally have a look, 'to see how many friends he's got' - cue laughter.
