That's the way it's always been, though, and she's so used to it, it barely bothers her. With a conservative father whose greediness makes her sick and an appearance-obsessed mother, Ricky's used to being the black sheep of the family. She finds her escape in the steamy, hot scenes of bikers and the maidens who love them, read in secret pleasure in her room.

But Ricky finds reality and fantasy colliding when her best friend gives her an early Christmas gift: a night out at the local biker bar, home of the Black Stallion MC. It's the gruff, handsome Rush who catches Ricky's eye, and she's not ashamed to admit that she's caught his as well.
