Play on Words is a collection of word games combining illustrations and unusual typographic arrangements, relying on the ambiguity of the English language to entertain the reader. The book with its humorous presentation challenges the reader to solve each word game. Making use of everyday expressions, clichés, puns, road signs, book and movie titles, Play on Words, besides being entertaining, serves as an educational device for the young and a refresher for the mature reader. The work is therefore aimed at a very broad audience, including those trying to fathom the idiomatic expressions which are so much a part of the language.
