I Love You... Still: To Keep the Love, YA Gotta Laugh Martha Bolton

Martha Bolton will have husbands and wives laughing at each other, themselves, and the sometimes zany institution of marriage with her new book. I Love You . . . Still takes aim at the humorous aspects of wedded bliss (at least Martha has found humor in them!). Each entry begins with a Scripture verse, followed by a comedy sketch on a theme common in most marriages, discussion questions, and a "Love Note."

Chapters include:

Shall We Gather at the Thermostat

Is That What I Said?

I've Grown Accustomed to Your Clutter

'Til Debt Do Us Part

Planting Time

Yes, there are definitely sticky issues when two people share lives, homes, kids, pets, and a broken air conditioner. But as Martha so joyously affirms on every page, I Love You . . . Still is for "lovers everywhere who have learned that the happiest married couples aren't those who have never seen trouble, but those who have kept their focus on the flowers while laughing at the thorns."
