MOUNTAINEERING, The Freedom of the Hills by The Climbing Committee of the Mountaineers, 1960, First Edition, First printing. This is a RARE, COLLECTIBLE Hardcover book. There is NO Dust Jacket, as published. The book has a clear, Mylar Cover on it to protect it fro harm. In 1935, when the Mountaineers presented their first climbing course, the lack of a suitable textbook was immediately felt. Commonplace though it is that mountaineering can be learned only in the mountains, the high country season is so short that lectures and home studies in the winter are desirable if students are to make most efficient use of field practices in spring and experience climbs in summer. A Great Educational Tool!
