Blythe Ryan doesn't think very highly of herself. Neither does her overbearing mother and absent father.

But when one man sees her shopping for a party he knows she is everything he ever wanted. The perfect woman for him. It doesn't take long for the strangers to realize they have a deeper connection that will lead to more than just a casual date or two.

Nate Stiles is a smart guy. He loves the simple things in life. Skipping school, listening to music and cooking. But soon, one of the things he loves will prove to be too much for the world he wants to share with a mysterious woman who chooses to hide herself in plain view.

But Blythe has a secret she has been hiding. It gnaws at her every day, making her strive for perfection in an imperfect world and just when things in her life are starting to become a wild and exciting adventure she feels herself begin to sink into a dangerous pit of self-destruction.

Can Nate help Blythe see the beauty in and around her or have years of torture and torment done so much damage it cannot be reversed?
