Warning these novels are extremely controversial so please don't buy them if you were disturbed at all by the Da Vinci Code or Passion of Christ. We also recommend you read the 1st two cycles first, however this new cycle is stand alone if necessary.

Praise for the 3rd cycle of the Betrayed series...

"In this 3rd cycle we finally get the whole team back together again. Brandt and Rebecca are back and we get to see if parenthood and special ops can go together. We get to see if Lopez or One Shot can get back to his adventurous self after losing Levont and Malvern. Can Stark can get over Bunny and give Tika a try. As always Starks mom does what she does best. Last but not least we get to find out if things are working out with Davidson and Bunny after professing their love at the end of the last book. Once more we get to take an adventure with the team as try to stop a new cult and save the world. This one gave me moments of sadness that made me teary eyed but as always it was a great book by Carolyn."

More praise for the 3rd cycle of the Betrayed series...

"I love the fact that Carolyn McCray incorporates family background into the storyline. Her books are never stale, the flow along like a fast moving river. They have all the emotions rolling through them too; love and laughter, fear and trepidation, as well as a religious element added in for good measure too... This fast paced novel has Brandt, Rebecca and the team moving all over the world including Cyprus, Vienna, Iran and Jordan just to name a few that won't spoil the story.... If you love intrigue, comedy, romance, terror and with a religious overtone then look no further than reading StormFront, you won't be disappointed. I haven't been and can't wait for the next book in the series, they are phenomenal."
