Who Am I, Really? Shantae L. Buchanan

Peering in the mirror, what do I see? I see my past looking back at me. "Then all of a sudden, every time you are about to do something, what they said about you at 9 is affecting you at 39, it's affecting you at 49, it's affecting you at 59." Our lives are a sum total of our experiences. These experiences can have lasting effects on our lives. In Who Am I, Really, author Shantae L. Buchanan explores the stories of ten individuals who have allowed wounds from their pasts to negatively shape their present. As they encounter the healing and restorative power of Jesus, they are faced with a decision. They can choose to clearly see themselves and allow the restorative influence of the Word of God to change them or they can continue living in the past and allow it to destroy them. Once the light is shone on them, which choice will they make? Will it lift them up or tear them down?
