How to Wage War and Win Mary Howell

The enemy has caused many of us to feel defeated, misleading us to believe that God did not give us a rulebook for life. We are not just a body of believers, but we are a victorious army, designed to overcome and subdue every adversity. We have to become like David determined that no one will dishonor Gods plan for our lives. Like David we need to know How to Wage War and Win. We have to know the weapons of our warfare. The only way we can know our weaponry is to train, as David did with the lions and bears he fought. We each have to fight the lions and bears in our lives for our healing and deliverance. You have to become violent in order to have victory. What lion and bear has God been trying to train you with, to teach you How to Wage War and Win?
