Year of the Griffin (Derkholm) Diana Wynne Jones

It is eight years after the tours from offworld have stopped. High Chancellor Querida has retired, leaving Wizard Corkoran in charge of the Wizards' University. Although Wizard Corkoran's obsession is to be the first man on the moon, and most of his time is devoted to this project, he decides he will teach the new first years himself in hopes of currying the favor of the new students' families—for surely they must all come from wealth, important families—and obtaining money for the University (which it so desperately needs). But Wizard Corkoran is dismayed to discover that one of those students—indeed, one he had such high hopes for, Wizard Derk's own daughter Elda—is a huge golden griffin, and that none of the others has any money at all.

Wizard Corkoran's money-making scheme backfires, and when Elda and her new friends start working magic on their own, the schemes go wrong still. And when, at length, Elda ropes in her brothers Kit and Blade to send Corkoran to the moon . . . well . . . life at the Wizards' University spins magically and magnificently out of control.

This breathtakingly brilliant sequel to Dark Lord of Derkholm is all one would expect from this master of genre.

Maria Clyburn:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Year of the Griffin (Derkholm) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
