Attitude within the Workplace: An Eight-Step Healing Process C. Payne

Attitude within the Workplace: An Eight-Step Healing Process presents a technique designed to help others to improve their attitude based on the life experiences of author C. Payne. She reveals how she was finally able to take responsibility for her own negative attitude problem. By admitting that she was the problem and giving her attitude meaning, she was able to change her life. Now, she shares the process she used to turn her attitude around at work. Chapter by chapter, this guide reveals the eight steps that can help you change your attitude within the workplace. Chapter one deals with first recognizing that you are the problem. Payne goes on to pose helpful questions to help you determine how to move ahead from there. In addition, she cautions that it's important to determine if the cause of the bad attitude is personal or related to business. She ends each chapter on a positive note with Scripture from the Bible. Attitude within the Workplace offers an eight-step healing process for anyone who is trying to give positive meaning and purpose to their life by improving their attitude and moving forward with their life.
