The Secret Trail Jim Bethea

"The Secret Trail" is a Christian fiction adventure story about the world-wide exodus of Jewish people back to their ancient homeland of Israel. Bushpilot David Grey and his family are drawn into a struggle to help Russian-Jewish refugees escape the clutches of a shadowy international organization that is determined to stop them. Flying through magnificent snow-capped, forested mountains and lakes of the Canadian Pacific coast, the pilot's floatplane becomes a vital link to small groups trekking through the wilderness. The Greys find their own faith tested and refined along with those whose lives depend on them.

Aliyah, the Hebrew word describing this modern exodus, actually means "I go up to God". Many who have read this book admit it has powerfully impacted their own lives and drawn them into a practical, day-by-day relationship with a very real God. Highly recommended therapy for anyone facing life-crises and needing confidence-building faith.
