A Cry In The Wilderness Gregory Reid

In an age where "comfortable Christianity" and self-seeking religion have become the norm, these messages cut to the heart of things and are a deep cry to return to the faith that upended nations and brought the fire of God's love to bear on a lawless generation. Written from the pen of Dr. Gregory Reid, a 40 year veteran of youth ministry and evangelism, this book is powerfully direct and without pretense or sugar-coating. It is an antidote to feel-good Christianity and a welcome challenge to those who know there is more to following Jesus, and are willing to follow Jesus with their whole hearts.
