Sympathy For The Devil Tom Kiesche

Continually at odds with the brass of the LAPD and the paparazzi, Mitch Ryan has a gift for giving himself powerful adversaries. After pulling himself off a barstool to discover a gorgeous reality-TV star bleeding-out in a back alley, the ex-cop puts himself square in the sights of an internationally feared Colombian street gang, an insanely hot Voodoo priestess, and a culture sick with celebrity.

It's pop-culture flash meets suspenseful sexy noir, in a cynical contemporary tale, filled with ripping repartee and Old Testament consequences.

"(while reading I was) told to keep the guffawing down to a minimum... I REALLY, REALLY, REALLY liked the book. Seriously, really!"

-Jack Kusler, Publisher
