Lisa never breaks promises.

So when her old partner, Aurora, makes her promise to find out who has kidnapped Jeff Waters and to save him from being killed, she agrees. No one knows that he's burrowed a path into her soft heart after their illicit night in his luxurious apartment. Just imagining him being in danger is enough to terrify the Las Vegas detective into taking chances she wouldn't normally now that she's responsible for her precocious three-year-old nephew.

Jeff hates knowing that the one person who comes to his rescue is the only woman he's ever wanted to marry, a woman he should be protecting not the other way around. The fact that his family's history put her in danger is driving him crazy. As crazy as the two killers who want him dead... but only after they get their ransom and bed the gorgeous long-legged prostitute they know has come to save him.
