The first thing that you have to develop in order to be an effective leader is yourself. One is called a leader because people are expecting that they know the direction in which they must be. A friend once told me, "You cannot give what you don't have, right? Neither can you lead others, without leading yourself first." The first person that you must have an influence on is yourself and this book can help you do that.

Here are Qualities of a Leader That Will Be Covered in This Book - Leadership Skills

- Integrity
- Confidence
- Humility

- Vision
- Strength
- Open Mindedness
- Self-Discipline
- Hardworking
- Approachable
- Influential
- Inspires and Encourages Others

Leadership is not an easy task, but it can do so much. A false move can do serious damage and no one feels the lash of failure more than the leaders themselves. So great a responsibility lies on the shoulders of those who are called to lead and pursue set goals. However, the price of leadership may be costly but it is worth every process and challenges one may face. Not only will the leaders and their team accomplish their plans, but they do so in an excellent manner that will set the wheels of success turning. Many lives will be changed for the better and so will the leader themselves!
